JAZZ

By Katie Atkins, Roosevelt High School, Seattle

I play the trumpet in my school jazz band. Last month we held a jazz competition with bands from local high schools – and our band nearly won! In the end, there was just one band that beat us.

Each band had their (a) ..... costumes, ranging from black school uniforms like my band wore, to brightly-coloured T-shirts. We didn't look much like adult professional bands, but all of us were (b) ..... to performing in competitions, so the quality of playing was amazing, especially considering everyone was so young. Players from (c) ..... band even created new tunes right there on stage. It was exciting to watch – but even better when my band played on stage!

We have a great jazz band at my school, but not everyone who wants to play in it (d) ..... accepted – fewer than half, in (e) ..... . But anyone who is keen on jazz goes to practice in the morning before school, and (f) ..... of us spend time together after school, listening to jazz and learning (g) ..... language. There are also trips to jazz summer camps across the country – I've been to a (h) ..... and learnt a lot.

Adults are often amazed that young people are getting interested (i) ..... jazz. My music teacher thinks it's because pop music isn't challenging enough for people like me (k) ..... are serious about music. But I find it exciting because it's both new and old at the same time – you can create your own music, but you also feel you're part of its history, as you're playing on (l) ..... in the same way as great jazz performers before you. My school's really lucky because we have great teachers, and parents who've supported us all the way – financially, as taxi drivers, and generally wherever they can. Without (m) ..... , we'd never get anywhere with our music!
