The public swimming pool

I love to go to the public swimming pool in / of our town, especially early in the morning in July. Often I already get there well before nine, usually at twenty to nine. I put my / the bike under the big shady tree next to the entrance. Then I walk to my favourite spot on the lawn, sit down and enjoy the quiet atmosphere. It's very peaceful because there aren't any / many children there yet. To go swimming then is a pleasure, too, because there are not a lot of people in the water. But about one / an hour later everything is different. More and more people arrive and the peaceful hours at the public swimming pool are over.
